STOCKHOLM, June 4.

THE fortifications of all the places on our frontiers, both on the ſide of Finland and Norway, which have been in a very bad ſtate for ſeveral years paſt, are now repairing with all poſſible diſpatch.

Bale, in Switzerland, June 12. By the laſt advices from Lauſanne we learn, that Count Rantzau, (who ſo eminently diſtinguiſhed himſelf in the late revolution in Denmark) after a reſidence of ſome time at that place in the character of an apothecary from Franckfort, had lately retired from thence, on finding himſelf diſcovered.

Copenhagen, June 15. There are at this time in our road nine ſhips of the line, three frigates, and ſeveral yachts, all which will ſail from hence in a very ſhort time, in order to perform ſome marine manœuvres.

Cracow, June 18. We have juſt received advice here from Gueſna, that the Pruſſian troops in that city have ſeized the treaſure which was in the Cathedral, amounting to ſeveral hundred thouſand ducats, and ſtripped the tomb of St. Adelbent, which was plated over with ſilver by King Sigiſmund III. They have likewiſe removed thoſe exquiſite gates to the church, which were made of Corinthian braſs, and formerly belonged to the monaſtery at Corſinna in Taurica Cherſoneſus, but were brought to Gueſna by Boleſleaus II. This ſtep of Pruſſia is beheld with much aſtoniſhment."

Paris June 25. M. Bruce, the celebrated Engliſh traveller, is arrived at Marſeilles, where he was obliged to be brought on ſhore in a kind of litter, being attacked with a diſorder peculiar to the country he is juſt come from, and called Vena Medina, from the town of Medina, where it commonly reigns. It is a worm of the thickneſs of four lines of ſilk twiſted together, and ſometimes ſix feet long, which introduces itſelf into the ſkin, and lodges in the cellular membrane. This ſingular malady cannot be cured but by the total extraction of the worm, but if it happens to break in the operation, the part of the worm which returns into the ſkin occaſions ſharp pains, and very often the gangrene. Such is the caſe at preſent with the unhappy Mr. Bruce. The worm was broke in endeavouring to extract it, and has ſince put him to ſuch anguiſh, that we are in great fear his life will be endangered.

LONDON, June 29.

Notwithſtanding it has been ſo confidently aſſerted that the Queen of D———k was ſponſor to the daugter of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of G———r, a correſpondent informs us, that it was not a crowned head by proxy, but the Princeſs A——a, who took this opportunity of ſhewing her approbation of the marriage, by ſtanding godmother in perſon.

They adviſe from Breſt, that two ſuperb crowns, together with other preſents to a conſiderable amount, were lately ſhipped on board a King's frigate for Goree iſle, intended to be preſented to ſome powerful Princes on the African coaſt, whom the French are ſaid to have gained over to their intereſt.

Sunday morning a ſervant girl in the borough was to have been married to a journeyman taylor in the neighbourhood, when, O dire miſchance! juſt as the happy couple were ſetting out for Church, the bride fell in labour, and was delivered of two chopping boys in leſs than an hour;—a circumſtance which occaſioned an unavoidable ſuſpenſion of the ceremony.

July 1. Yeſterday the young Marquis of Granby was preſented to his Majeſty at St. James's and moſt graciouſly received.

Laſt week three Ruſſian men of war of the line paſſed in ſight of Falmouth, bound to the Archipelago.

The Eaſt-India Company have received advice, by the Lord Camden Eaſt-Indiaman, Capt. Riddle, who is arrived off the Iſle of Wight, from China, that the Alfred Eaſt-Indiaman, Capt. Lauder, from London, is ſafe arrived at St. Helena, where ſhe landed the ſoldiers ſhe had on board for the defence of that iſland, and that not above three of them died in their paſſage.

Extract of a letter from Peterſburgh, June 20.

"We have juſt received the very agreeable intelligence of the town of Bachiſenai, in Crim-Tartary, being taken from the rebellious Coſſacks, &c. who had poſſeſſed themſelves of that and many other towns of great importance, eſpecially Oczakow, at the mouth of the Neiper or Boriſthenes, where they have now retired to. In this action above 7000 of the rebels fell, but not one was taken priſoner. On the ſide of her Imperial Majeſty's army, Gorſffe, and ſeveral other officers, with 6000 men, were killed, and near 4000 wounded. In this action no other advantage was gained but taking the town, as the rebels had moved off all their baggage, ammunition, guns, &c.

We are informed that a negociation is on foot with the Court of Madrid, for the Engliſh logwood cutters to be indulged with a larger extent of territory in the Bay of Honduros.

A gentleman of veracity juſt arrived from France aſſures us, that the French in general ſeem deſirous of a renewal of war with us, but that the ſentiments of their King are at preſent averſe to hoſtilities.

A Dutch ſhip from France to Amſterdam was boarda few days ſince, off Beachy head, by two cutters with 12 men in each, armed, who took from her 15 anchors of brandy and ſundry other goods, to the value of upwards of 100l.

It is ſaid that a Daniſh Eaſt-India ſhip was lately taken in India by the Marattas, and afterwards retaken by a Portugueſe ſhip, and carried into one of their ſettlements.

It is an undoubted fact, and may be maintained as coming from the moſt reſpectable authority, that the Miniſtry have determined Parliament ſhall meet again ſo early as November, in order to amend the Eaſt-India Regulating-bill.

Ten young Engliſh Gentlemen of fortune arrived the week before laſt at St. Omer's in Flanders, in order to be educated in the Jeſuits College there.

July 2. The ſword of State was yeſterday borne to and from the Houſe of Peers by the Right Hon. Lord Boſton.

Orders are given for diſcontinuing the Court days at St. James's on Sunday till further notice.

Extract of a letter from Portſmouth, June 30.

"When the King was walking round the ramparts of this garriſon, he expreſſed a deſire to go down the High-ſtreet, but was perſuaded from it by Lord Robert Bertie, who told him, that there was too great a croud of people about him, and that, beſides neither his carriage or guards were at hand. His Majeſty replied, "What need have I of guards, whilſt ſo many of my faithful ſubjects are round me?" His Majeſty's great condeſcenſion and behaviour, during his ſtay amongſt us, has entirely won the hearts of his ſubjects here, and he muſt, from the tour, experience, in ſome degree, what it is to reign over a brave and free people. The company went away perfectly ſatisfied; no complaints of impoſition or extortion: in fact, there was no juſt cauſe; for, in general, both lodgings and proviſions were plenty, good, and moderate. We have no doubt of his Majeſty's paying us future viſits; for he ſaid, in the hearing of many, that it exceeded his coronation; that he never before knew what pleaſure was, that he did not know how to leave Portſmouth; and when he came next he would have no guards; and expreſſed himſelf with perfect rapture on ſeveral occaſions. Fie upon your Bill of Rights and conſtitutional ſocieties, as they are called! they have poiſoned the minds of thouſands of his Majeſty's honeſt, well-meaning, but deluded ſubjects.

"The expence of the King's journey is found to be much under what was imagined; and although above 525 guns have been fired from every one of the twenty gun ſhips, and ſix rounds from every gun in the garriſon, beſides occaſional ſalutes, yet it is obſerved, that the powder uſed was all ſo much damaged as not to be fit for real ſervice without milling, the ſaltpetre being chiefly evaporated."

Extract of a letter from Goſport, June 29.

"Lord Sandwich and the yachts are out pleaſuring round the Iſle of Wight, from which they are to go to Plymouth, to view the dock, &c. and then return home.

" Monday ſailed from Spithead the Speedwell and Hazard ſloops of war.

" The ſame day arrived at Spithead from Gibraltar the Thames frigate, with Governor Cornwallis on board."

July 3. The Ruſſians and Turks have both lately publiſhed memorials accuſing each other for their obſtinacy in not giving up certain points towards fixing a peace. The above courts differ very greatly in their accounts of the behaviour of the reſpective miniſters at the congreſs. The Ruſſians in their memorial ſay, that on their part the congreſs and treaties were managed with the utmoſt reaſon, temper, and chriſtian calmneſs; but that the Turks were obſtinate, impatient, and full of paſſion, which were the principal reaſons for breaking off the negociations. While the Turks aſſert, that ſeveral ſittings were held, and the time paſſed in reciprocal diſcuſſions; but that ten days before the expiration of the armiſtice, the Sieur Obreſcow became more inflexible than uſual, and without abating a ſingle article of what he had demanded at the commencement of the negociation, he added thereto certain propoſitions equally oppreſſive and imperious.

A letter from the north of Scotland ſays, that their ſalmon-fiſhery is likely to turn out greater this ſeaſon, than has been known for upwards of 20 years.

We are informed, that fifty American built veſſels have been ſold, in the courſe of the preſent year, to foreign powers in the Mediterranean.

July 5. Advices from Peterſburgh import, that the Empreſs of Ruſſia had written a letter to Prince d'Orlow to the following purport.

" Prince GREGORY ORLOW,

" It is with the utmoſt ſatisfaction that we have " heard of the re-eſtabliſhment of your health; and " we have nothing more at heart than the welfare and " proſperity of the empire. We wiſh that you would " employ thoſe eminent talents you are endowed with, " according to your wonted zeal and aſſiduity in our " ſervice, to promote thoſe great ends. We there- " fore hereby ſignify our will and pleaſure, that you " ſhould reſume the functions of the offices which have " been conſided to you; and as for the reſt, we re- " main your moſt affectionate.

(Signed) CATHERINE."

On Saturday his Excellency the Count de Malzhan, the Pruſſian Ambaſſador, ſet out from his houſe in Old-Bond-Street, for Spa, in Germany. The management of affairs in his abſence, is intruſted to his Chief Secretary.

Two very eminent artiſts are at this time employed in drawing views about Portſmouth, and of the Iſle of Wight, by order of his Majeſty, in order to furniſh a new picture gallery, which is now building at Kew Palace.

An ingenious gentleman of the Society of Arts is ſaid to have found out a new ſpecies of oak, which grows in Devonſhire: it is as ſtrait and handſome as a fir; its leaves ever green, its wood as hard as the common oak, and its growth ſo amazingly quick, that in the ſpace of twenty or thirty years it will outgrow in altitude and girth the common oak at an hundred. It is very frequent about St. Thomas's in the above county, and is now cultivated with great ſucceſs by the neighbouring farmers.

We are aſſured that the city of London have come to a reſolution (if it be found practicable) to make a navigable canal from the river Lea to Middle Moorfields, and from thence to Marybone; and that orders were on Saturday given to an eminent ſurveyor to take an immediate ſurvey of the land for that purpoſe.

The Eaſt-India Company have ordered ſeventeen ſhips to be put into commiſſion for their ſervice the enſuing year.

There are now building, and fitting out in different yards, for the Eaſt-India Company's ſervice, 16 ſhips.

Extract of a letter from Peterſburg, June 25.

" By all our accounts here we learn, that the Ruſſians are every way ſucceſsful againſt the Turks, except in the Black Sea, and in the Palus Mæotis, where the Turks are victorious, having taken and deſtroyed moſt of the Muſcovite veſſels, and entirely poſſeſſed themſelves of the city of Aſoph, at the mouth of the river Don or Tanais, which they are fortifying with all induſtry, in order to prevent the future communication of the Ruſſians, with the Sea of Aſoph and the Black Sea."

July 6. We are informed that his Excellency the French Ambaſſador, Count de Guignes, will immediately after the preſent inſtallation at Oxford, ſet out on his return to Verſailles.

Our Reſident at Conſtantinople, we hear, has lately tranſmitted to our Court ſome propoſals of an extraordinary kind from the Grand Signior, in order to engage us to take ſuch a part in the preſent diſpute between him and the Empreſs of Ruſſia, as might prevail upon her to offer more equitable terms for an accommodation than thoſe lately refuſed by the Turks. Our Court it ſeems do not chooſe to be ſo deeply concerned in this affair as an acquieſcence to the above propoſals would oblige them to; however, by other meaſures adminiſtration will endeavour to bring about an accommodation.

A private letter from France aſſures us, that the Prince of Conti, with other Princes of the blood, have been ſummoned to Verſailles, but they did not attend.

Extract of a letter from Madrid, June 3.

" The lateſt advices from South America confirm the accounts of the general riſing of the Chileſe, &c. and fully authenticate their various ſucceſſes againſt the Spaniards; inſomuch, that they have ſcarce one town or place of any ſtrength to retreat to; thoſe which the Chileſians take, they moſtly burn down to the ground immediately on taking poſſeſſion. They have fortified the city of Baldavia in a very ſtrong manner; and as they are well acquainted with the European diſcipline, they bid defiance to all the Spaniſh force in that part of the world; and are likely to extirpate every Spaniard from their country."

It is currently reported, that Mr. Pownal has accepted the government of New-England, at the ſtrong ſolicitations of Adminiſtration, from principles the moſt praiſe-worthy, viz. that of reſtoring unanimity and harmony between our moſt gracious Sovereign and that loyal people.

The report of the pirate, which was carried into the Cape of Good Hope by a Dutch man of war, being the Aurora, is ſaid to have been contradicted upon 'Change, with the addition of her having been formerly a French privateer built at St. Omers. It is alſo ſaid, that the Mate of a ſhip which lately touched at Madagaſcar, aſſures, that part of the bottom of a veſſel was lately driven on ſhore there, ſheathed with copper, from which circumſtance it is ſuppoſed to have belonged to the Aurora. So that the original ſtory of this ſhip's being wrecked is ſtill thought by many to be the truth.

Lord Dartmouth has appointed Capt. Roberts to go on an embaſſy to ſome of the Indian tribes on the continent of North-America, in order to ſettle a very valuable branch of commerce.

July 7. By letters from the Archipelago we learn, that the Ruſſian ſhips of war in thoſe ſeas have taken, in the courſe of the laſt eighteen months, veſſels of different nations, as well Turks as others, with effects on board belonging to the Porte, to the amount of above 3,000,000 of florins; and that in general the trade of the French and Venetians in that quarter is totally ruined.

The Anti-Sejanus, Good, from South Carolina to Belfaſt, took fire at ſea by ſome accident, and was burnt down to the water's edge. The crew were taken up by a French merchant-man from St. Domingo and carried to St. Valery.

Letters from Stockholm, dated the 25th of May, adviſe, that the Sieur Troil, ſon of the late Archbiſhop of Upſal, is on his way to that city, after having made a voyage to Iceland in company with Mr. Banks. He aſſerts, that the language now ſpoken in the above iſland is abſolutely the ſame with that which is preſerved in the Swediſh books written in the eighth century, which, he ſays, is a proof of the great connection that iſland has always had with the kingdom of Sweden.

Extract of a letter from Plymouth, July 2.

" Juſt arrived here, Admiral Edgecombe with the following ſhips under his command, viz. the Dublin, the Albion, the Boyne, the Torbay, the Somerſet, the Raiſonable, and the Orpheus, all from Portſmouth; alſo the Auguſta yacht, the Hazard ſloop of war, and the Greyhound cutter."

Inſtead of ſelling 7500 cheſts of tea at the laſt ſale, as the Directors reckoned upon, it is well known that they did not diſpoſe of more than 2000.—Hence ariſes the deficiency of the 200,000l. which they will want next month.

July 8. A curious and valuable buſt of his Majeſty has been preſented to the Univerſity of Oxford by the Queen, which was expoſed to view at the inſtallation of Lord North.

It is ſaid that ſome ſignal honours will be conferred upon Lord Stormont previous to his return to the continent, as a teſtimony of approbation of his conduct during his late reſidence in the quality of Britiſh Ambaſſador at the Court of Verſailles.

It is ſaid the Terrible, Royal Oak, Dartmouth, and Pallas men of war, at Portſmouth, are ordered for the Mediterranean directly.

A perſon at Clapton has a four wheel'd carriage, which, by the means of a couple of treadles, is made to go without horſes. The perſon who guides the machine by preſſing his feet alternately on the treadles, gives it whatever direction he thinks proper. The proprietors intend to uſe this carriage as a ſtage to convey paſſengers between Clapton and London. It carries only two perſons at a time.

July 9. Early yeſterday morning died, at his houſe in Portman-ſquare, the Rt. Hon. James Cranſton, Lord Cranſton, of Creting, in the county of Roxburgh, in the Kingdom of Scotland.

Extract of a letter from Toulon, June 16.

" The naval armament which has for ſome time been fitting out here, is now compleatly finiſhed. It conſiſts of eighteen ſhips of the line, from 90 to 50 guns, ten frigates, four ſloops, two bombs, and a fire-ſhip, beſides ſome galleys and tranſports. Moſt of the ſhips have their full complement of men on board, with proviſions for four months, and are fit to put to ſea at the ſhorteſt notice. What is the intention of equipping ſuch a fleet, is unknown, and various conjectures are formed reſpecting it; but the moſt probable opinion is, that the armament is intended to aid the Turks againſt the Ruſſians in the Mediterranean."

It is ſaid that commiſſions have been received here, within theſe ten days, to the amount of 120,000l. for goods &c. proper for the American trade.

It is ſaid, that on account of the late great advance on wheat, a popular member of the Privy Council has moved for a trial of the rice ſtarch; intending, ſhould it be found to anſwer the purpoſe of our manufactories, to uſe his efforts to procure a prohibition of wheat from being made into ſtarch, during the receſs of Parliament.

We are informed, that Lord Dartmouth has nominated Col. George Mercer to be Governor of the new colony on the Ohio, which ſhould be called Pittſylvania. Our correſpondent obſerves, that this act is a ſtrong proof of his Lordſhip's ſtrict juſtice, as well as of his good judgment. Colonel Mercer has not only great public merit to recommend him, but few men poſſeſs ſo many amiable qualities, either as a friend or as a gentleman.—He is a native of Virginia, and received a very liberal education at the College of Williamſburgh; he afterwards ſtudied the law, and though he might have lived very independantly and quietly on the eſtate which his father had portioned him with, yet he preferred the hazardous ſervice of his country to a life of eaſe; he accepted of a military commiſſion at the commencement of the late war, and ſerved in different ranks, 'till the regiment he belonged to was reduced; he alſo repreſented a county in the General Aſſembly of that province. In 1763 he came over to England to ſolicit for a confirmation of grants of land for the Ohio Company, in the very ſpot where the new government is to be eſtabliſhed; and as a public teſtimony of his zealous and diſintereſted ſervices, the Governor, Council, and Aſſembly of Virginia, recommended him to his Majeſty. When the famous Stamp-act paſſed, the late Mr. Grenville appointed him Stamp-maſter in Virginia, in which difficult office he acquitted himſelf with ſo much diligence and firmneſs, as juſtly to entitle him to the entire approbation of Parliament and Adminiſtration: and though he was at the head of the liſt of thoſe gentlemen who were recommended by the Houſe of Commons to his Majeſty, for ſome adequate employment, when the act was repealed, yet he is the only one of them who has not been provided for. All theſe circumſtances, ſo highly recommendatory of him, with a character perfectly unexceptionable, ſeem only to have operated as a bar to his preferment; 'till Lord Dartmouth (who has always been diſtinguiſhable for his upright and equitable conduct) rewarded his long neglected merit. The propriety of his choice redounds much to his Lordſhip's wiſdom, as well as to his honour, for Colonel Mercer's perfect knowledge of that country, his thorough acquaintance of the American laws, and the well known candour, integrity, and firmneſs of his mind, (excluſive of his other fair pretenſions) render him better qualified for that appointment than almoſt any other man.

[For more London news, ſee the Supplement.]

WILLIAMSBURGH, (Virginia) Auguſt 19.

This day died Mr. WILLIAM RIND, Printer to the Colony, after a tedious illneſs. He was a gentleman of a very amiable character, being a tender huſband, a kind parent, an indulgent maſter, and a faithful ſervant of the public.

PROVIDENCE, Auguſt 21.

On Monday laſt a girl of about 12 years of age was detected in paſſing counterfeit dollars. Her father was immediately apprehended, and committed to goal. In his pocket-book, which he found means to ſecret while in cuſtody of the officer, a counterfeit New-York bill was found. Another perſon has ſince been committed to goal, and it is expected further diſcoveries will be made. The dollars are dated 1770, and ſo badly executed, that the fraud may be eaſily diſcovered.

NEW-YORK, September 2.

Monday the 23d ult. arrived here the brig Neptune, from the iſland of Lewis, in the north of Scotland, with 150 paſſengers and ſervants. The brig came in under the command of Capt. Giſby, the former Capt. Humphrey Warden, died on the paſſage.

Mr. Timothy Soper, the Mate of Capt. Moore, informs, that on the 28th of April laſt, the ſloop ——— Capt. Fairly of this place, put into Hiſpaniola in diſtreſs, that the Spaniards immediately ſeized the veſſel and cargo, and after plundering the Captain and his people, carried them to the priſon, and put them in irons, where they all remain in cloſe confinement, except the above Timothy Soper, who was then Capt. Fairly's Mate, and made his eſcape the 4th of Auguſt.

On Friday laſt died at 23, Miſs Suſannah Finley, daughter of the Rev. Dr. Finley, late Preſident of Naſſau-College, New-Jerſey; ſhe was truly amiable in her manners, and uncommonly reſigned and exemplary in her death.

Tueſday afternoon arrived in this city, a lady who ſtiles herſelf the Marchioneſs De Wal de Graave. The caſe of this perſon appears extremely ænigmatical, ſhe is ſaid to be the ſame deſcribed in moſt of the public papers, under the name of Sarah Wilſon, alias Lady Carolina Matilda, and character of a lady of quality, with alliances of the moſt exalted kind; ſtill ſhe inſiſts upon the verity of theſe pretenſions, and makes the ſame impreſſions on many, who converſe with her, as ſhe has very remarkably done in the ſouthern provinces.

It is an incident moſt memorable and peculiar, that the citizens of London ſhould this year have made choice of both Sheriffs from this continent, namely Mr. Stephen Sayre, a native of Long-Iſland in this province, and Dr. William Lee, who was born in Virginia, and is the perſon who has ſo eminently diſtinguiſhed himſelf as a political writer, under the ſignature of Junius Americanus. Indeed the Liverymen have ever manifeſted the ſteadieſt ſupport of all thoſe who approve themſelves heartily devoted to their principles.

On Friday morning his Excellency the Governor, attended by the Truſtees of the charity, will proceed from the fort, to lay the firſt ſtone of the Hoſpital.

Yeſterday evening we had a very heavy hail ſtorm, ſome of the ſtones weighed two ounces, and almoſt filled a wine glaſs.

PHILADELPHIA, September 6.

On Sunday Se'nnight the Honourable JOHN PENN, Eſq; one of the Proprietaries and Governors in chief of this province, and his Lady, arrived in this city from New-York. They were met at Briſtol by a great number of gentlemen and ladies, who accompanied them to town.—The next day, the Governor, being attended by the Council, the ſupreme Judges, the Mayor, Recorder and Commonalty, of this city, and ſeveral gentlemen of the Clergy, and preceded by the Sheriff and his officers, went in proceſſion to the Court-houſe, where his commiſſion for the government of this province, and the counties of New-Caſtle, Kent and Suſſex on Delaware, was publiſhed with the uſual ſolemnities, in the preſence of a very great concourſe of people.

We hear that, immediately after the Governor's Commiſſion was publiſhed, the Corporation of the city met, in order to draw up and preſent an addreſs of Congratulation to him on his ſafe return to ſettle in the province, when a member of the Board informed them, that he was authoriſed to mention it as his Honour's wiſh, "that the ceremony of written Addreſſes might be diſpenſed with, as entirely needleſs on the preſent occaſion, for that having received ſo many ſubſtantial and repeated proofs of regard from all denominations of people, as well during his former adminiſtration, as when the affairs of his family made it lately neceſſary for him to depart for a ſhort time to England, he could not now doubt of the continuance of their good will towards him."

Captain Miller, from London, on the 26th of July, in lat. 41 : 12, long. 38, ſpoke the ſhip Eleanor, Capt. Bruce, from Antigua for London, out 5 weeks, all well: On the 30th, in lat. 39 : 30, long. 44 : 42, ſpoke a ſloop, (a whaler) from Boſton: On the 6th ult. in lat. 38 : 34, long. 51, ſpoke a ſhip from Southampton for Virginia, out 31 days, but it blowing hard, could not learn who ſhe was; and on the 18th, in lat. 37 : 2, long. 64 : 44, ſpoke the brig Content, Capt. Roſs, from Barbados for Caſco Bay, out 17 days.

Captain Jones, from London, on the 10th ult. in lat. 36 : 57, long. 59 : 51, ſpoke the ſhip Jamaica, Capt. Wilſon, from Jamaica for Briſtol, out 6 weeks, all well: On the 14th, in lat. 38 : 9, long. 64 : 54, ſpoke a ſnow Capt. Himſeff, from Maryland for Cork: On the 19th, in lat. 38 : 13, long. 70 : 8, ſpoke a brig from New-York for Newfoundland; and on the 24th, in lat. 35 : 45, long. 72 : 25, ſpoke the ſhip Friendſhip, Capt. Burk, from Jamaica for Liverpool, out 4 weeks, all well.

Captain Correy, from Dublin, on the 31ſt of July, in lat. 31 : 30, long. 58, ſpoke a brig from St. Euſtatia for Amſterdam, out 14 days: On the 12th ult. in lat. 31, long. 67 : 30, ſpoke a brig Capt. Woodhouſe, from New-York for Jamaica, out 13 days, all well; the ſame day, he ſpoke the brig Lively, Capt. Hall, from Jamaica for Liverpool, out 20 days, and on the 20th, in lat. 38 : 13, long. 68 : 30, ſpoke a ſloop, Capt. Drew, from this port for London, out 5 days, all well.

RICHARD PENN, Eſq;
Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in chief of the Province of Pennſylvania, and Counties of New-Caſtle, Kent and Suſſex, on Delaware.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS a great number of bills, printed in the form, ſimilitude and likeneſs, of the true and genuine bills of credit of this province, of the denominations of Three Pounds, and Thirty Shillings, dated the firſt day of March, 1769, have been forged and counterfeited, and are now circulating in this city and province, to the great prejudice of his Majeſty's honeſt and liege ſubjects: AND WHEREAS it is of the greateſt importance to the trade and commerce of this province, that the credit of all ſuch bills as have been emitted by law, ſhould be ſupported and preſerved, and that the forgers and counterfeiters of them ſhould be diſcovered and brought to condign and exemplary puniſhment: I HAVE therefore thought fit, with the advice of the Council, to iſſue this Proclamation, hereby promiſing and engaging, that the public reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, ſhall be paid to any perſon or perſons, other than the accomplices, who ſhall diſcover the author or authors of the ſaid forgeries, ſo that he or they may be apprehended and brought to juſtice. TO THE PUBLIC.

THIS is to give notice, that on Wedneſday laſt a warrant was iſſued by one of the Supreme Judges of this province, againſt a certain Joſeph Richardſon, otherwiſe called Capt. Joſeph Richardſon, late of this county, to apprehend him upon a charge made on oath that he is one of the perſons concerned in forging and counterfeiting the 3*l.* and 30*s.* bills of credit of this province: In conſequence of which the Sheriff's officers beſet his houſe for ſeveral hours, and uſed their utmoſt endeavours to take him, but without effect, the ſaid Richardſon having loaded piſtols and other arms in his houſe, put them to defiance until night, when he made his eſcape out of a ſmall window at the back of his houſe, and got clear off to a horſe prepared for him at a ſhort diſtance. The ſaid Richardſon is a middle-aged man, ſix feet one or two inches high, fair complexion, light brown hair, a well made ſtout active man, well dreſſed, and mounted on a ſtout likely horſe. Likewiſe a POWDER for poliſhing and giving a fine enamel to the teeth, at ONE SHILLING a paper, with printed directions how to uſe both.——What can be more uſeful or ornamental (eſpecially to the fair ſex) than a ſet of beautiful poliſhed teeth, firmly embraced by healthy and ſound gums? To enlarge on the many benefits which may be derived from the uſe of this celebrated though cheap dentifrice, is unneceſſary; thoſe who once make trial of it will ſtand in no need of any argument to perſuade them to continue it, or recommend it to their friends whoſe teeth or gums are in a ſimilar condition. By the ſhip RICHARD PENN, Capt. ALL, and the ſhip MARY and ELIZABETH, Capt. MESNARD, arrived here from LONDON, we have received the following advices.

WE are aſſured that the Ruſſians have not yet paſſed the Danube, but are paſſing it over three bridges which they have thrown over near Iſaktsja and Tulica, that they are fortifying themſelves on this ſide that river, and are encamped at Babadag. The ſame accounts add, that after ſeveral ſkirmiſhes which there have been to the diſadvantage of the Turks, the Grand Viſier had retired, and had pitched his tents near Dragowy, at the foot of the Balkan.

The 30th of laſt month a courier arrived here, who brought accounts that a corps of 4000 Ruſſians having attempted to paſs the Danube near Ruſzig, were entirely beaten by Dagheſtanli Ali Pacha.

Deules Guery, ſucceſſor of Chim Guery, and formerly a Chan of the Crimea Tartars, arrived at Bajukdera the 27th of laſt month, accompanied by ſeven Sultans, a vaſt number of Murſes, and 2000 Tartars, who are entirely in his intereſt. The Grand Seignor has given him the command of the army deſtined to reconquer Crimea. Yeſterday that Prince had a conference with the Caimakan and the Reis Effendi, and received from them his laſt inſtructions in quality of Seraſkier. He is very ſoon to ſet out with all his ſuite on board the ſhips of the third diviſion.

Rome, June 9. Captain Traill, of the royal Engliſh artillery, was this day elected a member of the academy of St. Luke; and the royal academy of Painting at Florence have done him the ſame honour.

Conſtantinople, June 10. A report is ſpread here that the Grand Vizier, having received advice of the advantage obtained by the Ruſſians over our troops near Babadag the beginning of laſt month, detached on that ſide three Pachas with 70,000 men, who not only drove the enemy from Babadag, but alſo purſued them beyond the Danube, and cut in pieces or made priſoners the greateſt part of them.

The Chan of the Tartars, who has been ſet up by the Port, departed from hence about a fortnight ago, for Bujukdare, where he aſſembled about two thouſand well-diſciplined Tartars, with whom he embarked on board the ſquadron in the Black Sea, to put himſelf at the head of 40,000 of his ſubjects, who only wait his return to ſhake off entirely the Ruſſian yoke, who are too weak to maintain themſelves there. At leaſt he has given the Grand Seignior hopes of this, in the conferences he had with him before his departure. The good condition of the Ottoman fleet in the Black Sea, the number of troops ready to ſupport the expedition, and the impatience with which the greateſt part of the Tartars ſuffer the domination of Ruſſia, ſeem to promiſe happy ſucceſs. The third ſon of the Chan had already ſet out before his father from the Crimea.

Five hundred men are at preſent employed on the forts, which the Chevalier has cauſed to be conſtructed on the Canal of the Black Sea, in Europe, and in Aſia. Theſe forts, which will be bordered on one ſide by the Sea, on the other by inacceſſible rocks, it is ſaid, will cover this city from all inſults, but on the other hand will not be finiſhed in leſs than three years, and will coſt five millions of piaſtres.

Mantua, June 11. Father Gardani (Benedictine) is arreſted by order of the Empreſs Queen, and confined in the caſtle; ſuppoſed to have been done at the ſolicitation of ſome power, as this Monk is known to be of an intriguing ſpirit, and gave great offence to the Court of Spain during his reſidence at Parma.

Conſtantinople, June 11. We have juſt furniſhed with a large quantity of artillery, the caſtles lately conſtructed at the entrance of the canal at Conſtantinople.

Peterſbourgh, June 16. The Ruſſian fleets were never ſo reſpectable as they are at preſent. We reckon at Revel 28 ſhips of the line, four of which were conſtructed under the inſpection of Mr. Knowles, and carry 74 guns each. The greater part of the other veſſels which are new, are the work of the moſt celebrated Engliſh builders, and the majority of the officers on board are Engliſh, Scotch or Iriſh. The maratime forces of Ruſſia in the Archipelago are ſtill more conſiderable. They conſiſt at leaſt of 40 ſhips of the line, excluſive of frigates and a number of ſmaller veſſels. [As the Turks, on their part, boaſt alſo much of their fleets, which they make to conſiſt of upwards of 100 ſail; if theſe accounts be true, we may expect warm work this Summer, both by land and water.]

Warſaw, June 19. The letters from Conſtantinople which bring the news of Ali Bey's defeat, and of his being wounded and taken priſoner, &c. make no mention of the field of battle, or of the day on which the action happened.

Our troops in Poland will be immediately augmented; and we are aſſured that the magazines in Bohemia are ordered to be tranſported into the Upper Sileſia.

Venice, June 22. A report is current over all this city, that the Ruſſian Miniſter here has received a courier this morning with the agreeable intelligence, that Count Romanzow had ſuddenly paſſed the Danube, as a favourable opportunity offered, and attacked the army of the Grand Vizier, when a battle enſued, and the Turks were put in the utmoſt confuſion by the brave and vigorous attacks of the Ruſſians, ſo that the latter gained a compleat victory. The Turks loſt 30,000 men, killed, wounded or taken priſoners; and the Ruſſians have made themſelves maſter of all their magazines, taken a number of ſtandards, cannon, &c. &c. &c. and a great number of Agas and Baſſas are among the priſoners. They have alſo taken the whole treaſure belonging to the Turkiſh army, conſiſting of an immenſe ſum of money which had lately been received from Conſtantinople; ſo that this muſt neceſſarily be the laſt blow for the Turks, as the Ruſſians now will be able to make themſelves maſters of the whole Ottoman dominions in Europe without meeting with the leaſt reſiſtance. Several people here aſſert, that letters received this day from Tranſilvania confirm the above; and we very impatiently wait for a further confirmation, with the particulars.

[We cannot but inform the public, that we ſtill have reaſon to doubt the truth of the above, as our letters, of the lateſt date, received this day from Warſaw, make no mention of Romanzow's paſſing the Danube, but bring the following account.]

Warſaw, June 26. The day before yeſterday a courier arrived at the Ruſſian Ambaſſador's houſe here, who brought the agreeable news of a victory gained by General Suwalow over a Turkiſh army of 4000 men on the 26th ult. near Turkukai, of which about 800 were killed, and 1500 made priſoners. After which the General beſieged Turkukai, and after forty-eight hours bombardment, made himſelf maſter of the place, and 660 Bulgarians, who were in garriſon, were made priſoners. This victory was followed by another affair of conſequence, for the Ruſſians having taken a Flotille on the Danube, conſiſting of 18 large veſſels, 11 ſmall veſſels, and 15 boats, which had on board an immenſe quantity of gun-powder and other warlike ſtores, which they were obliged to deſtroy, as they could not carry it off; and the city was plundered, and deſtroyed likewiſe.

Peterſburgh, June 22. Her ſerene highneſs the Landgravine of Heſſe Darmſtadt, and the three Princeſſes her daughters, arrived at Revel on Thurſday night laſt, after a voyage of ten days, from Lubec; and they are expected this evening at Zarſco-Zelo.

Italy, June 22. If we may give credit to the letters received from Spain, the motive is known, which engaged the Court of Madrid to levy the fifth man throughout the whole extent of its dominions to recruit its armies, which are to be ready to take the field next month, and to ſend ſuch preſſing orders to work continually on the equipment of ſeveral ſquadrons. That power is on the eve of having two wars to ſupport, the one in Africa, and the other in America. In Africa, the Emperor of Morocco, at the head of the Princes of Barbary, ſeems reſolved to drive out the Spaniards from their poſſeſſions there; in conſequence he is now beſieging the fortreſs of Oran, with an army of 42,000 men, and it is aſſured, that the united forces of the Barbary Princes, amount to about 140,000 men.

Warſaw, June 23. The Delegates have ſuſpended their conferences to the 3d of next month, in the mean time the Miniſters of the three courts hold frequent conferences together. The co-partitioning powers are highly diſpleaſed at the delay the accommodation of the affairs of this kingdom meets with. It is ſaid that the Auſtrians and Pruſſians want to augment their poſſeſſions conſiderably; the former as far as Czenſtochau on the ſide of Sileſia, and as far as Kaminiec on the ſide of Hungary; theſe two places are to be their barriers. The latter will extend themſelves from Czenſtochau to Pruſſia, and will take upwards of one half of Great Poland. It is alſo given out that the King of Pruſſia wants to cede his rights to Maſſovia for Samogithia, and afterwards terminate thoſe he has to Courland. Great diſſentions have ariſen among ſeveral of the firſt families of this kingdom.

Venice, June 23. We are aſſured that the Ruſſian Miniſter here hath received a letter from Cataro, which confirms what we had before learned from Tranſylvania, viz. that there has been a bloody battle near the Danube, between the Ruſſians and Ottomans, in which, it is ſaid, the latter loſt 30,000 men, with the military cheſt, and ſeveral ſtandards. We expect every moment to receive letters with a more circumſtantial detail.

Rome, June 23. Letters from Malta adviſe, that two corſairs of that iſland, took on the 30th of April, in the Levant ſeas, two Turkey merchant ſhips, with a cargo valued at 150,000 crowns.

Leghorn, June 23. By letters from Cairo dated May 9, we learn that Ali Bey being on his march towards Egypt, at the head of 40,000 men, to conquer that kingdom, met Mehemet Bey Aboudaab, who commanded an army of 30,000 men, well diſciplined, in a plain near Salehie, about 50 Italian miles from Cairo; that the 29th of April the two armies engaged in a battle which laſted eight hours, when Aboudaab obtained a complete victory; Ali Bey having received five mortal wounds, was taken priſoner, and in 48 hours after, having kiſſed Aboudaab's hand, expired in the tent of his vanquiſher. His head was afterwards cut off, and ſent to Conſtantinople to the Grand Seignor.

Marſeilles, June 24. The laſt letters from Smyrna mention that univerſal tranquility, reigns there through the care of the Muſelim, who maintains his authority by very rigid juſtice. The 15th of May there was a quarrel among the Janiſſaries, which coſt ſome of them their lives. The Muſelim cauſed ſeveral of them to be taken up, and finding ſome of them had been guilty both of murder and theft, he cauſed them to be either ſtrangled or baniſhed.

Warſaw, June 24. Strawinſki, and ſix other conſpirators, have been arreſted by the Ruſſians on the frontiers of Courland.

Belgrade, June 26. We learn from Conſtantinople, that two Tartars arrived there lately from the camp of the Grand Viſier, confirm themelan choly news that the Ruſſians, having paſſed the Danube, had advanced as far as Babadag, and there formed a fortified camp, from whence they marched out and attacked a body of 15,000 Turks the greateſt part of whom periſhed by the blowing up of a mine.

Vienna, June 26. The laſt letters from Bohemia bring moſt alarming accounts of the great damages done by the ſtorms, accompanied with hail, in that kingdom.

The Prince of Gonzague, who has reſided in this city for ſix years paſt, in great want, waiting the iſſue of his cauſe with reſpect to his principality of Caſtiglione, which was ſequeſtered during the war about the Spaniſh ſucceſſion, has ceded his right to the Houſe of Auſtria, for 300,000l. florins.

They write from Teneſwar, that they had poſitive advices, that the Ruſſian General Field Marſhal Count de Romanzow was actually on the other ſide of the Danube; that a Baſhaw had aſſured them, that the Grand Vizier had aſſembled all the troops of the neighbouring provinces, about his camp, the poſition of which was extremely advantageous; and that as the two armies had drawn pretty near each other, a general engagment was hourly expected; that the Baſhaw added, that he, with two thouſand men, had come to blows a few days before, near Orſova, with a body of Ruſſians, which he had routed, and taken the commander and ſeven other officers priſoners.

Vienna, June 26. The advices received here from the armies of the belligerant powers are totally contradictory. The Turks pretend, that the two bodies of Ruſſian troops, one of which paſſed the Danube at Ruſtzchuck, and the other at Dudracan, have been obliged to repaſs that river, with conſiderable loſs; but the Ruſſians ſtrongly aſſert the contrary.

Warſaw, June 26. By advices from Moldavia, dated the 14th, the Ruſſian grand army commanded by Field Marſhal Count de Romanzow, was on the point of paſſing the Danube. It conſiſts of between 80 and 90,000 men. Prince Dolgorucki's army which has hitherto remained in the Ukraine and New Servia, is already aſſembled to march on the firſt notice to Crimea, to defend that Peninſula againſt the enterprizes of the Turks; part of this army is alſo deſtined to form the ſiege of Oczakow.

Notwithſtanding experience has ſhewn us how little credit ought to be given to the reports which are continually ſpreading thro' this country, we cannot help taking notice of the following, viz. that the court of Vienna has declared by its Ambaſſador that they will call their troops out of Poland, and be contented with the Staroſty of Zips, and the diſtrict of Sandecz, provided the two other powers will act in the ſame manner. We impatiently wait for the confirmation of this report.

Stockholm, June 29. Laſt Wedneſday Baron Charles Sparre, late Governor of Gefle, was inſtalled Grand Governor of Stockholm, in the room of General Rudbeck; and the ſame day his Majeſty nominated Count Gyllenſtolpe to be Governor of Gefla.

His Majeſty has been alſo pleaſed to appoint Baron Frederick Sparre to be Chancellor of the Court, in the room of Baron Bunge, lately promoted to the dignity of Senator.

Warſaw, June 30. The Clergy have offered to the Delegation to pay annually to the Republic 100,000 crowns, by way of free gift; but it is thought the offer will not be accepted until they make the ſum amount to 100,000 ducats.

The Confederacy has publiſhed a manifeſto, which has been ſent to all the Grods. By this manifeſto, all who have not yet acceded to the Confederacy formed under the authority and protection of the three allied powers, are enjoined to ſign it, and to renounce the Confederacy of Bar, within the term of twelve weeks for thoſe who are out of the kingdom, and ſix weeks for thoſe who are preſent, under pain of loſing their eſtates and dignities.

Hamburgh, July 2. By letters from Peterſburgh there is advice that the whole village of Vieux-Ladoga is burnt down; and the fire at Moſcow, according to ſome accounts has deſtroyed three thouſand houſes.

Paris, July 2. M. Birbek, the Engliſh agent at Marſeilles, hath received an order from the Admiralty, to cauſe the frigate, which had been on a cruiſe of obſervation ever ſince we began to arm at Toulon, to retire. This intelligence hath given an entire ſecurity to commerce.

Lower Elb, July 8. We are juſt informed by a letter from Cronſtadt, that the Ruſſian fleet, of twelve ſhips of the line and eight frigates, which was ſuppoſed to be deſtined as a fleet of obſervation in the Baltic, has received orders to join the Daniſh fleet, of ſixteen ſhips of the line and nine frigates, which the Empreſs has taken into her ſervice, and both to proceed to the Mediterranean. Thus is the Empreſs of Ruſſia ſending a fleet of forty-five ſail to the Mediterranean, which no one pretends to aſſign any reaſon for, only it is ſuggeſted that ſome diſtant knowledge of this affair has occaſioned the arrival of ſo many Couriers at Stockholm from a certain ſouthern Court, whoſe Monarch, perhaps, has the greateſt reaſon to hinder theſe northern gueſts from coming ſo near his dominions in the Mediterranean; however this may be, this ſtep is very remarkable, and ſeems to prognoſticate matters of the greateſt importance.

LONDON, July 12.

We hear that the orders of laſt year are ſtrictly to be obſerved, relative to the fiſhermen at Newfoundland, on whom all mercantile goods, ſpirituous liquors, &c. are to be ſeized by his Majeſty's cruizers, which cannot be compriſed in the articles of ſhip ſtores.

It is confidently reported (whatever we were lately aſſured to the contrary) that the Honourable Mr. Walpole, our Envoy extraordinary at the Court of Liſbon, has received orders to inſiſt, in the moſt ſtrenuous manner, on the immediate performance of every article lately ſent in a memorial to the King of Portugal; and, in caſe of refuſal, to return home.

"The 24th of laſt month two girls, one of 12, and the other of 13 years old, were feeding four cows and a heifer on a hill, named Coteau de Roſe, in the territory of Aſpres: about four o'clock in the afternoon the cows ſuddenly began to run, and one of the girls followed in order to ſtop them, while the other was giving bread to the heifer; at the ſame time a ſubterraneous noiſe was heard, and all the ground which the cows had juſt left fell in. Diligent ſearch has been made for the other girl and the heifer, but to no purpoſe.

July 14. Major General Carlton, ſucceeds General Gage, as commander in chief of his Majeſty's forces in North America.

Orders are given for a detachment of the royal regiment of artillery, to be in readineſs to embark for the Iſlands of Guernſey and Jerſey, on the firſt notice, to relieve a detachment on that ſtation.

The following is a copy of a letter ſent to each of the Captains of the men of war at Portſmouth, and read to their ſhips companies:

"Sir Thomas Pye, Admiral of the blue, and commander in chief of his Majeſty's ſhips at Spithead and in Portſmouth harbour, has it in command from the King, to acquaint the Right Hon. Lord Edgecumb, Vice-Admiral of the blue; Sir Richard Spry, Rear Admiral of the white, and the Captains of the ſquadron under their command, that he is pleaſed with their attention during his viſitation at Portſmouth, and that he ſhall ever have in remembrance the activity and vigilance of the officers, and men of that ſquadron, on the late equipment. THOMAS PYE."

On Monday was tried, in the court of Common Pleas, at Guildhall, before Mr. Juſtice Gould, by a ſpecial jury, the great cauſe in which Mr. Fabricas, an inhabitant of Minorca, was plantiff, and a gentleman in a very high office in that Iſland, defendant, charged with impriſoning the plantiff, and ſending him into baniſhment to Carthagena in Spain. The trial began at ten in the morning, and laſted till about ten at night, when the jury brought in a verdict for the plantiff, with three thouſand pounds damages.

This day the Lord Mayor will hold a court of conſervancy at St. Margaret's Hill for the county of Surry; afterwards his Lordſhip will hold a court at the King's Arms Tavern in Palace-Yard, for Middleſex.

Extract of a Letter from the Hague, July 6.

"We are informed that Sir Joſeph Yorke, Ambaſſador from Great-Britain at this Republic, has juſt preſented a memorial to the States-General, requeſting of their High Mightineſſes, in the name of the King his maſter, that they would give the neceſſary orders for placing lights during the night in the Summer as well as in Winter, in the light-houſes which are fixed on both the banks of the Meuſe, at the mouth of that river, in order to prevent the accidents to which Engliſh and other ſhips are expoſed when the weather is dark or cloudy. This memorial hath been referred to commiſſaries, and as its object will not be attended with much expence, it is believed that the requeſt of Sir Joſeph York will be complied with."

A correſpondent obſerves, that our modern patriots may talk and rail, and dream and roar againſt corruption. They may ſhew us a tree of corruption, and a man in that tree; but there is but one way of cutting down this tree; which is mens keeping themſelves from diſtreſſes by induſtry and frugality. The only way to prevent corruption is a virtuous education, good examples, ſtrict order and government in families, breeding up children to buſineſs, and inuring them to temperance and labour. But the neglect of theſe, the folly of tradeſmen in imitating the extravagances of gentlemen, and the growth of idle men among us, bred to no buſineſs, prepare us for any wickedneſs that will ſupply thoſe wants, which our idleneſs and extravagance have created.

It is to be regretted that a young Duke, who is in poſſeſſion of one of the moſt ſplendid fortunes in the kingdom, and who is the head of one of the moſt powerful and numerous families, ſhould prove ſo mere a blank in the government where he might act ſo diſtinguiſhed. Two or three years ago, when he became of age, he gave the moſt ſolemn aſſurances to his friends and the public of his reſolution to ſerve his country, and to preſerve himſelf independent on the Court: Since that time however, his character has dwindled into nothing, and he is now conſidered as ſilly as the reſt of the nobility.

The Queen of Denmark makes a point of ſeeing every Engliſh lady or gentleman that travels through Zell, her Majeſty's preſent reſidence, to whom ſhe behaves in the moſt complaiſant manner imaginable. The above amiable Lady has the Engliſh news papers conſtantly tranſmitted to her, and always ſeems greatly affected at reading accounts relative to the ſituation of her two diſcarded brothers.

We hear a grant of 5000 acres of land near Lake Champlain on the back of New-York ſettlements in North America, has lately been made to Col. Ord, of the train of artillery.

We hear that Lord Tyrawley has left the greater part of his effects, both real and perſonal, to his eldeſt ſon James O'Hara, Eſq; Governor of Fort Lewis on the African coaſt.

It was yeſterday morning ſtrongly reported upon 'Change, that certain advice is received of the death of the Queen Dowager of Denmark, and that another revolution is hourly expected in favour of the exiled Queen.

They write from the Hague, that all the garriſons and barrier towns in Holland, Flanders and Dutch Brabant, are compleatly garriſoned by order of the States.

The gentlemen who were admitted to the honorary degree of Doctor of the Civil Law at Oxford laſt week, paid ten guineas each for that compliment.

It is ſaid that Lord Tyrawley begged ſome time before his death that he might be laid in the burying-ground of the Royal Hoſpital at Chelſea, with the old ſoldiers of that foundation, ſaying, "As he had bravely lived with them in the field, ſo he wiſhed after his death, that his remains might be depoſited with theirs:" A requeſt that cloſed the life of this noble veteran.

A correſpondent has ſent us the following droll anecdote: "When the King of Monomotapa ſneezes, all the courtiers are obliged to ſneeze alſo; and the ſneezing ſpreading from the court to the city, and from the city to the provinces, the whole empire ſeems to have gotten cold."—A ſimilar complaiſance, though of a different nature, ſeems to prevail at our court.

We hear that a patent of Baronetage is now making out for General Monckton.

The Poſt-maſters General have ordered money ſcales and weights to be made for the inland and foreign offices, and one for each letter-carrier, that they may weigh all gold before they take it. Upwards of 100 ſets are ordered for this purpoſe.

"The meaſures which are now taking, and the operations going forward in all the ports, beſpeak the intention of the Spaniſh miniſtry to carry on the renewed war againſt the Moors with the utmoſt vigour. A fleet is fitting out, and nearly finiſhed, at Seville, which fleet is to favour the motions of the Spaniſh army now on the African coaſt, and afterwards is to attack the capital port of Sallee. Great numbers of the military are daily ſhipping off from Cadiz and Seville, to reinforce the Spainards at Oran, who by the laſt advices from them have retaken Tetuan, and have formed an intention when the reinforcements arrive, to attack the capital city of Mequenez."

"A freſh treaty is on the tapis between the courts of France and Liſbon, which if all the articles are ratified and obſerved will turn out greatly to the advantage of the former. The principle articles in her favour are: that the French ſhall be allowed to ſell negroes in all the Portugueſe ſettlements in America That they ſhall be allowed an open trade to all the ports belonging to Portugal in Africa, and the Eaſt-Indies, and that they ſhall import the products of France to Rio Janeiro, in the Brazils, duty free: with many other conſiderable advantages. The reaſon of the King's wearing a wig is owing to his hair growing thin;—though political people think, that he means to ſet his Whig at the Tories.

The hair of which his Majeſty's wig is compoſed, is called by the peruke-makers the purblind ſort, and is very ſcarce. It was not purchaſed in Spital-Fields, as mentioned in ſome of the papers; but of Mr. Collick, hair-merchant, in St. Martin's Lane, near Charing-Croſs.

NEW-JERSEY.

Morris-Town, August 30, 1773.

SIR,

AS the public are intereſted, ſo they muſt be anxious to know the reſult of a ſpecial court of Oyer and Terminer, held here lately for the diſcovery and trial of the perſons concerned in the counterfeiting the paper currency of the provinces of New-York, Pennſylvania, and New-Jerſey.

I ſhall give you a brief narrative of the tranſactions of the Court, and the facts that appeared, that you may communicate them, if you think proper, through your paper.

This acccount you would have had ſooner, but it was thought (for certain reaſons) prudent not to publiſh it until this time.

You have already mentioned in your paper that Samuel Ford and John King had eſcaped from goal. Their eſcape made it extremely difficult to diſcover their accomplices. The court opened on Tueſday the 11th and it was the Friday following before the leaſt intimation could be got of any perſons concerned, when one of them, who lay under the cenſure of three convictions, the one for aiding Ford and King in their eſcape, and the others for high miſdemeanors, on being hard puſhed, and in order to mitigate his puniſhment for theſe crimes, began to make a confeſſion, this ſoon alarmed another of the accomplices, who made an ample and full confeſſion.

By which confeſſions, and thoſe of the perſons afterwards apprehended, theſe facts appeared—That Ford has been in the buſineſs of money making many years, that in the year 1767, or 8, he followed it in New-York; but was apprehended on ſuſpicion of making money, and admitted to bail, and even then ſet about preparing materials to renew the buſineſs, that he ſoon removed back into this county, where he again entered into it, and made a connection in Philadelphia, with a certain Capt. Joſeph Richardſon, from whom he got a ſupply of types, he then attempted the New-York emiſſion of Three Pound Bills, and made a conſiderable ſum, but complained of the thinneſs of the paper, and the bad credit of the currency; at leaſt in this and the neighbouring provinces, and gave a preference to the Jerſey currency; but it is thought did little at it till the Pennſylvania emiſſion of 1769 came out, when he with Captain Richardſon went to Ireland, and from thence to London and the manufacturing towns, and Ford applied himſelf to learn the buſineſs of an engraver and type maker, and from his knowledge before in the art of carving, and an uncommon natural genius, he in the courſe of three months became ſo perfect a maſter of the buſineſs, that (on his return to America) he made all the types for his preſs, and in ſo maſterly a manner, that the imitation of the Jerſey and Pennſylvania bills, which were ſtruck by them, of Three Pounds and Thirty Shillings, is ſo exact that the difference cannot be diſcovered without the moſt ſtrict examination of a perſon well acquainted with the true bills.

From the time of his return, till he was apprehended, he went on with uninterrupted ſucceſs, and emitted large ſums of the Jerſey and Pennſylvania currency; but principally of the latter, for theſe two years paſt, and was the leſs apprehenſive of being detected for the following reaſons:

1ſt. His bills had ſtood the teſt of the ſeveral treaſurers examination, and had their ſanction, which he ever made an invariable rule to ſecure before he paſſed any of his new emiſſions.

2dly. His preſs and all his implements were in an almoſt impenetrable ſwamp, at a mile diſtance from his houſe, and in which the water moſt part of the year, was half leg deep, ſo that no perſon could track him, and he muſt crawl on his belly ſome rods before he could reach it.

3dly. As no perſon, except King and Richardſon, knew where he did work, or had ever ſeen the place, and theſe and all others concerned were ſworn to ſecrecy, —He uſed to go to his work at day light, in the morning, with his gun, ſo that no perſon could ſuſpect him. —Ford was called the Treaſurer for the three provinces. He ſigned his own bills. By direction of the Court a number of perſons went into the ſwamp, in ſearch of his types, &c. but found only his preſs, and a leather that covered the bills when they were ſtruck, on which was the impreſſion of a Pennſylvania Bill of £3, of the emiſſion of 1769.

Upon theſe facts the following perſons (who were only concerned as paſſers of the money, except Reynolds, who procured ſome types for Ford) to wit, Benjamin Cooper, Eſq; Doctor Bern Budd, Samuel Haynes, and David Reynolds, were indicted and plead guilty to their ſeveral indictments, and on the nineteenth they received ſentence of death, to be executed the 17th of September next. Few ſcenes ever were more truly affecting than the one in the court-houſe, at the time of ſentence paſſing.—Theſe four perſons are remarkably handſome fine looking men, three of them about thirty, the other 40, they are all married and have children. All are deſcendants from the firſt families in the province, and all have parents living, and numerous relations—the attendance of their relations and friends added much to the ſolemnity of it, ſo much that it is better conceived than deſcribed—among a thouſand people there was ſcarce a dry eye. The ſpectators were more ſenſibly affected for thoſe unhappy perſons, as it appeared they had been drawn into it by the art, cunning and perſuaſion of that VILLAIN FORD.

Theſe were all the perſons apprehended for capital crimes, except Juſtice Ayres, whoſe crime was committed in Suſſex County, it appeared he had not been in the practice for ſome time paſt, and if any judgement can be formed of his repentance, by his conduct and carriage, it was ſincere before he was ſuſpected, as his life had lately been ſo exemplary, that the congregation to which he belonged had promoted him to the rank of deacon, and the parſon was ſo fully convinced of his innocence, that on the Sunday after his commitment he PRAYED for his protection from falſe accuſers, and the Sunday following a report prevailed that he was releaſed, when the Parſon returned thanks for it; but alas! before the next Sunday certain accounts were received that he had confeſſed his crime.

During theſe enquiries, ſufficient evidence appeared to convince every one preſent, that Ford was one of the perſons that robbed the treaſury of this province ſome years ſince, both from his own confeſſion to one of the convicts, who declared it on oath, as alſo from many other circumſtances.

From this account of Ford, the public muſt view him in the light of the moſt accompliſhed Villain, that this country ever produced, and it is hoped it will ſtimulate every well-wiſher to the community throughout the continent, to be watchful for, and active in apprehending him, eſpecially when they have the promiſe of 500l. from the Governor of Pennſylvania, for convicting the perſon who counterfeited the currency of that province, and of his being the man, againſt whom there is the fulleſt proof.—It is ſuppoſed he is gone to the Ohio, and intends going down to the mouth of the Miſſiſippi. Richardſon has alſo made his eſcape.

The Grand Jury in a polite addreſs, thanked the Court and Attorney General for the great pains they had taken, in aiding them in their diſcoveries, and in a very particular manner gave their thanks; and thoſe of the county to ſome perſons, whoſe activity had laid a foundation for detecting and breaking up this neſt of public robbers.

You ſhould have had this at large with the anſwer to it, but too much of your paper would be taken up thereby, for one ſubject to ingroſs.

Thus Sir, I have given you a brief account of the facts that appeared to the court, ſo far as they relate to the Paper Currency, and ſhould any thing further occur at the meeting of the Court the 28th inſtant, to which day it is adjourned, worth the attention of the public, you may depend on receiving it from

To the PRINTER of the PENNSYLVANIA PACKET.

SIR,

By inserting the following addreſs to the Freeholders of this County and City, you will oblige, N. Z.

MY FRIENDS,

THE unhappy diviſions that have prevailed in this County and City, for ſeveral Elections paſt, cannot fail to occaſion a real concern of mind, in every virtuous breaſt, that has felt the glow of a Patriotic Philanthropy.—To obſerve men who lived in confidence, and ſtood high in the eſteem of each other, ſuddenly diſſolving all friendſhip and regard, and hatred and enmity ſucceeding, can only afford pleaſure to the moſt degenerate mind. Where we muſt ſeek for the cauſe of this, my worthy fellow Citizens, is not my preſent intention to inveſtigate farther than to attribute it to the natural infirmities of human nature: ſuch infirmities as it is our intereſt, as well as duty, to bear, inſtead of requiting "evil for evil." I mean not to reproach you in what I have advanced; for I muſt confeſs I felt as well as others the malignant effects of a party rage, which made me view ſome of my very friends as monſters, whoſe political ſins made fit to be ſacrificed to the manes of our bleſſed Conſtitution, which I thought they were ready to barter away for the gratification of their avarice, their ſpleen, or their ambition.---Of theſe I ſincerely aſk pardon, for now the miſt of prejudice and paſſion has ſubſided, I view them through a clear medium, which neither magnifies their faults, nor obſcures their virtues; and I find they were actuated by the ſame laudable motives, which, I hope, I ſhall ever have to boaſt of, the love of Liberty and our Conſtitution.

Theſe my friends, are my ſentiments, which I truſt will be a ſufficient apology for taking up my pen at this time, to endeavour to effect a reconciliation of parties; for which purpoſe I beg leave to propoſe a few queries to your conſideration. But firſt I muſt declare that I am attached to no particular party amongſt my fellow Citizens, but I revere the friends of Liberty, and the honeſt, of every party.

QUERIES.

1ſt. Can you believe in your hearts, that either party amongſt you, ſome ſplenetic, turbulent, and ambitious men excepted, have any thing further in view, than the real ſecurity of our conſtitution, and proſperity of Pennſylvania?

2d. Ought you to abuſe, revile, and calumniate one another, merely for differing in your political ſentiments?

3d. Would it not be more conſiſtent with the character of a polite civilized people, ſuch as Philadelphians are acknowledged to be, to act with decency, unanimity, and harmony?

4th. Would it not become our character, and profeſſion as Chriſtians, to endeavour to promote concord, rather than to ſow diſſentions?

5th. And laſtly, Are not the moſt of you who have been involved in our political controverſies, heartily tired of them; and do you not wiſh for harmony to be reſtored?

I have ſo high an opinion of my fellow Citizens, both as politicians and as men, that I cannot doubt the anſwers that would be made to theſe queries; ſuch anſwers as wiſdom and benevolence will naturally dictate. In hopes that I am right in theſe my ſentiments of you, I do now venture to propoſe a general meeting of the moderate, ſenſible and reputable Freeholders and Electors of this City, without any diſtinction of parties, that we may agree upon two perſons to repreſent us, in the room of Samuel Shoemaker and Joſeph King, Eſqrs; ſuch as may both ſerve their country, and do honour to our choice. If ſuch a meeting can be effected, I have great hopes it will be productive of a reconciliation, provided that decency and good manners be preſerved in their debates; that it may, is the ſincere wiſh of

PACIFICUS.

NEWPORT, September 6.

Laſt week, four perſons were committed to goal, at Providence, and one at Eaſt-Greenwich, on ſuſpicion of counterfeiting money; and ſome of their implements have been diſcovered.

NEW-YORK, September 16.

Friday night laſt, the ſhip Franklin, Capt. Duncan, arrived here from Liverpool, in 8 weeks, who informs us, that the Lydia was advertiſed to ſail from thence for Philadelphia, about the firſt of Auguſt.

On the 3d inſtant a further and very ſtrict ſearch was made for printing materials (concealed by Ford, the money maker) in the ſwamp where the preſs was found, when, after much diligence exerted, a ſet of plates for printing the currencies of Maryland, Pennſylvania, New-Jerſey and New-York, with a quantity of types and other utenſils for carrying on the counterfeiting bills of each province, were diſcovered and ſecured. In the courſe of his flight he put off ſome Jerſey bills, of his own manufacture, amongſt the Indians, who being afterwards apprized that they were counterfeited, very chearfully joined in the purſuit of this moſt pernicious artiſt.

Poſitive accounts are received that Ford and King were at Fort Auguſta, near Suſquehannah, on the 29th of Auguſt, he was hovering in a canoe on one of the branches of that river, ſo he is not very likely to eſcape.

We are juſt now informed that Ford and King were on the 5th inſtant at a village called Annaquaga, and the chaſſeurs expected to be up with them the next night.

We are aſſured that Benjamin Franklin, Eſq; will embark in one of the early London fall ſhips, for this city, on his way to Philadelphia. The Captains Miller, Lawrence and Chambers were to ſail from thence on the firſt of Auguſt.

Laſt Friday Francis Burdett Perſonel, was executed for the murder of Robert White, Eſq.

His Majeſty's ſhip Swan, Capt. Ayſcough, is expected to be ſtationed here, in the room of the Lively, which is, with ſeveral other men of war, ordered home from the North America ſtation.

PHILADELPHIA, September 20.

This day the GENERAL ASSEMBLY of this Province meets here.

On Monday laſt the merchants of this city waited on the Honourable RICHARD PENN, Eſq; our late worthy Governor, and preſented the following addreſs:

To the Honourable RICHARD PENN, Eſq;

The ADDRESS of the MERCHANTS of the city of PHILADELPHIA.

SIR,

INFLUENCED ſolely by a ſenſe of the juſtice due to your public character, and highly pleaſed with the moderation, wiſdom and humanity, of your late adminiſtration, the merchants of the city of Philadelphia beg leave to return you their unfeigned thanks, for the protection and particular attention you have invariably ſhewn to the trade of this port, which has equalled the moſt ſanguine expectations they had formed, on your firſt appointment to the government.

Knowing the integrity and uprightneſs by which your conduct, as chief Magiſtrate, has been directed, we muſt conſider your unexpected removal from that ſtation, as unfortunate to the people over whom you have preſided, with ſo much reputation to yourſelf, and happineſs to them.

Under your adminiſtration we have enjoyed the bleſſings of peace, harmony and unanimity, the natural conſequences of that candour and love of freedom, which ſo ſtrongly mark your character; and our regret at your quitting this important ſtation would be the greater, had any other ſucceeded you than a deſcendant of the ſame worthy family, who, by his former mild and equal adminiſtration, has recommended himſelf to the affection and eſteem of the good people of this province.

Your declared intention of reſiding amongſt us, is peculiarly pleaſing, as we are confident your ſocial virtues and private character will ſecure the continuance of an affectionate regard from your fellow-citizens, as your public merits have gained their utmoſt eſteem and confidence.

To which Mr. PENN was pleaſed to return the following ANSWER.

GENTLEMEN,

THIS kind and affectionate addreſs, from ſo reſpectable and diſintereſted a body of people as the merchants of the city of Philadelphia, is a very great conſolation to me, and gives me the higheſt ſatisfaction that I could poſſibly have received in my preſent ſituation.

Be aſſured, gentlemen, I ſhall ever hold dear in remembrance, theſe your warm expreſſions towards me; and although I am ſo unexpectedly DEPRIVED of the power of being ſerviceable to you, in a public character, I hope, in my private capacity, as a fellow-citizen amongſt you, I ſhall at all times prove myſelf not unworthy this public mark of your regard and approbation, which you have ſo generouſly conferred on me."

After which the merchants, in a body, attended Mr. PENN to the State-Houſe, where an elegant entertainment was provided, at which were preſent the GOVERNOR and Council, the Corporation of the city, the Clergy, the Gentlemen of the Army and Navy, with moſt of the Strangers, and Principal Inhabitants of this city.

After dinner the following toaſts were drank, each accompanied by the diſcharge of the Artillery from the barracks.

1. The KING.
2. The QUEEN.
3. The PRINCE of WALES and ROYAL FAMILY.
4. The Honourable THOMAS PENN, and Proprietary Family.
5. The LAND we live in.
6. Proſperity to, and unanimity between, GREAT-BRITAIN and her COLONIES.
7. The city of PHILADELPHIA, and its COMMERCE.
8. The BRITISH NAVY.
9. The ARMY.
10. The BISHOP OF ST. ASAPH.
11. The immortal memory of WILLIAM PENN.
12. The glorious memory of GENERAL WOLFE.

15. General GAGE.
16. General HALDIMAND.
17. DANIEL DULANY, Eſquire.
18. Mr. BOURKE.
19. Sir GEORGE SAVILLE.
20. The FRIENDS of AMERICAN FREEDOM.

Under favour of the Commanding Officer, the company were agreeably entertained with ſeveral pieces of muſic, performed by the Band belonging to the Troops now quartered here; and the whole was conducted to the entire ſatisfaction of the merchants, who had a particular pleaſure in thus teſtifying their approbation of a gentleman, who, during his whole adminiſtration, had ſhewn himſelf a friend to the trade of this province, and who had rendered himſelf perfectly agreeable to them.

On Saturday laſt his Honour the Governor was entertained by the Mayor and Commonalty of this city, at the State-Houſe, with an elegant dinner, at which were preſent the late Governor Richard Penn, Eſq; the Members of Council, the Judges, the Clergy, the Gentlemen of the Army and Navy, with moſt of the Strangers and Principal Inhabitants of this city. Many loyal and patriotic toaſts were drank, accompanied by the diſcharge of the Artillery from the barracks, and the whole conducted with much decent feſtivity.

On the north side of Market-street, between Second and Third-streets, have just imported in the Pennsylvania Packet, Capt. Osborne, from London,

A LARGE assortment of the freshest Drugs and Patent Medicines, the most saleable articles in large quantities, which will be sold on reasonable terms.

AS the Copartnership between CHRISTOPHERS AND CHARLES MARSHALL, has been expired some time past, and as repeated solicitations to those who have been long in arrears, have been ineffectual, they once more request the immediate discharge of their accounts, to prevent their being under the disagreeable necessity of putting them in a Lawyer's hands to recover.—The BUSINESS is now continued by CHRISTOPHER, Jun. and CHARLES MARSHALL, at the old Drug and Colour Store, the sign of the Golden Ball, facing the end of Strawberry-Alley, in Chesnut-street, Philadelphia; who with a stock on hand, procured from the different places of growth and manufactories, and a fresh assortment, just arrived by the late vessels from London, make in the whole, a large and general assortment, in their different branches, which their customers may depend on being supplied with, on the lowest and best terms, amongst which are,

Drugs, Chemical and Galenical Medicines, true and genuine, a large and general assortment, with perfumeries of most kinds, shop furniture, Surgeons pocket instruments, lancets of several sorts, fierces, pill boxes, phials, gallypots, amber and coral beads, sponges, fine lint, &c. &c.

N. B. Our customers will please to observe, that amongst our assortment of medicines, we include sago, salep, pearl barley, hartshorn shavings, vermicelli, cinnamon, cloves, mace, nutmegs and pepper.

DRUGS and MEDICINES.

WILLIAM SMITH,

At the Rising Sun, in Second-street, between Market and Chesnut-streets, and next door below Jonathan Zane's,

HAS just imported, in the ship Mary and Elizabeth, Captain Mesnard, from LONDON, a large and compleat assortment of fresh Drugs and Medicines, of the first quality; also neat Shop Furniture, Surgeon's Instruments, of all kinds, from the best makers; likewise Spa and Pyrmont Waters, Rowley's famous British Herb Tobacco and Snuff, for head-achs and other nervous complaints; Painters Colours; a few setts of neat Crayons; fine liquid Blue Dye, Eau de Luce, Teeth Brushes, Essence of Bergamot and Lemons, neat and plain Smelling Bottles, &c.

N. B. Orders from physicians, country store-keepers, and others, will be thankfully received, and executed with care, on the most reasonable terms.---Medicine Chests for ships, Iron works, or private families, made up as usual, at said store, with plain directions, suitable to the diseases of the climate for which they are designed.

THE drawing of the SECOND CLASS of PETTIE'S ISLAND CASH LOTTERY, for Norrington Presbyterian church, &c. will certainly begin on said island, on Wednesday the 22d inst. where the adventurers and all others who please to attend, may have the opportunity of seeing it conducted with the greatest care and impartiality.

There remain a few tickets unrenewed, which will be disposed of, to the first appliers.

Those who incline to become adventurers, may be informed where tickets are to be had, by applying to Messrs. Robert Porter, Lewis Farmer, Dieterick Ries, Andrew Porter, David Allison, James Burnside, and Alexander Power.

THE ADVENTURERS in the Vineyard Lottery are informed, that the reason of its not being drawn as intended at the time appointed, is owing entirely to several of the Managers being lately much out of town, on their own private business, one of whom is not yet returned; likewise not having received a regular account of some tickets in the country, which as soon as obtained the drawing will commence, of which notice will be given. We hope therefore the Adveuturers will be kind enough to excuse this trifling delay. Some tickets may yet be had at the usual places, and as the scheme is pleasing, and inferior to none, it is hoped it will induce others to become Adventurers, and promote so laudable and expensive an undertaking, which without doubt if properly encouraged, and if we may judge from appearances, will answer expectation; and be in a short time both a credit and benefit to the province, by stimulating numbers of Germans and others, acquainted with the cultivation of vineyards to pursue it.

The Assembly of Virginia paying due attention to a like undertaking, have generously granted £.50 sterling a year to a Gentleman there, to enable him to make a trial: Pennsylvania is seldom backward in encouraging laudable undertakings, a Lottery is thought the most eligible way, where every encourager stands a good chance of being a gainer.

Newcastle Gaol, on Delaware, Sept. 13, 1773.

WAS committed to my care, the following servants and slaves, to wit, JOHN CLEMENTS, says he belongs to John Barkush, near Bush Town, Maryland. A negro man named DICK, speaks very bad English, and says he belongs to John Adams, near Snow-Hill. PETER, alias PERO, said he belonged to Jacob Lowry, near Lancaster, but now confesses he belongs to Jacob Peck, near the Gap Tavern, Chester County. GEORGE, a new negro lad, speaks very little English, says his master's name (as well as can be understood) is Moses Lann, and it is supposed by his signs, that his said master lives 100 miles beyond Annapolis. JAMES CONWAY, an Irishman, says he belongs to David Crafford, near Fishing Creek on Susquehanna. On suspicion the two following: JAMES INSELLOW, as he calls himself, a well set fellow, 5 feet 7 or eight inches high, sandy hair, red beard, full faced, large eyes, and is fond of drink. JAMES MOONEYS, as he calls himself, is about 5 feet 7 inches high, much freckled in the face, had on when committed, a light coloured wilton coat, old trowsers, good shoes, and had a new-fashioned cane with some silver mounting on it: They look very suspicious, and are supposed to have changed their names. The masters of the above servants are once more desired to come, pay charges, and take them away in three weeks, otherwise they will be sold out for their fees, by

ROBERT MACK, Gaoler.

A YOUNG MAN, who knows something of business, and can be extremely well recommended, would engage with a merchant or store-keeper for two years, without any other recompence than his board and a further knowledge of business. Enquire of the printer hereof.

Newcastle, September 13, 1773.

THREE POUNDS REWARD.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, living near Newcastle, an Irish servant man named EDWARD M'CALLOGAN, about five feet seven inches high, has a kind of roll in his walk; had on when he went away, a new wool hat, a snuff-coloured cotton jacket with clear buttons, one sky-colourd do. a pair of buckskin breeches about half worn, a pair of blue worsted stockings, new shoes with metal buckles, a new white shirt, and a new silk handkerchief. He stole from his fellow-labourer, one Dennis Lafferty, a pass signed by David Finney, Esq; and may probably attempt to travel by that name. Whoever takes up said servant, so that his master may have him again, shall have the above reward, and reasonable charges, paid by

PATRICK M'GONNIGLE.

FOUR DOLLARS REWARD.

RAN AWAY from his bail, sometime in June last, a certain JAMES SPEDDY, about nineteen years of age, five feet seven or eight inches high, brown hair tied, of a dark complexion; had on and took with him a grey cloth surtout, striped ticken trowsers, a fur hat with a deep crown and narrow brim: It is supposed he is gone to the Jerseys. Whoever takes up said Speddy and brings him to the subscriber, or secures him in any of his Majesty's gaols, shall have the above reward, and reasonable charges, paid by JOHN M'CLELLAN, Jun.

RAN AWAY, in the night of the 13th instant, (September) an apprentice lad named HUGH OVEN, 18 years of age, born in Wales, about 5 feet 5 inches high, has a short turn up nose, pale face, sandy hair, is very passionate, writes a tolerable good hand, and had with him a forged pass; it is supposed he will attempt to work at the currying business, to which he was bound; he took with him a brown coat and waistcoat, with white flowered buttons, a brown coat with plain white buttons, a dark coloured bearskin coat, a pair of black knit breeches, one white shirt, a pair of white thread stockings, an English beaver hat very deep in the crown, and two or three pair of good shoes; he likewise took several things with him that were not his own, for which he will (if taken) be prosecuted. Whoever takes up and secures said lad, so that his master may have him again, shall receive SIX PENCE reward, and all reasonable charges, paid by

JONATHAN MEREDITH.

BY A PENNSYLVANIAN.

Disguise thyself as thou wilt, still SLAVERY thou art a bitter draught; and though thousands in all ages have been made to drink of thee thou art no less bitter on that account.—'Tis thou thrice sweet, and gracious goddess LIBERTY, whom all in public or in private worship; whose taste is grateful, and ever will be so, till nature herself shall change.——No tint of words can spot thy snowy mantle, or chemic power turn thy scepter into iron.

IRON FURNACES,

IN all new established colonies, it appears highly necessary to use every means to moderate the price of labour, and for carrying on all kinds of manufactories with the greater facility, to which purpose mechanical contrivances seem particularly adapted; and as CHRISTOPHER COLLES, of Philadelphia, has made that branch of knowledge his favourite study, he gives this public notice, that he has lately thought of some things, and made some new inventions, which he apprehends may be exceedingly advantageous to this country, particularly a method whereby a furnace for extracting iron from its ore, may be carried on in any situation remote from water, (where the ore and fuel may be convenient) upon an equal footing with those, whose proximity to water make their situation convenient; and also a cheap and simple machine to raise water to Gentlemen's seats, and to water meadows, which contrivances he will execute for such as are willing to encourage him. Letters, (post paid) directed to him in Fifth-street, near the State-house, will be duly answered.

By the ship CATHERINE, Capt. SUTTON, arrived here from LONDON, we have the following advices.

CRONSTADT, June 12.

LETTERS received here from some officers in the Turkish army import, that the Ottoman troops are far more courageous in their attacks and defences, and discover a great deal more order and discipline therein, than in any of the preceding campaigns; and that they seem likewise much better skilled in the art of chusing and fortifying camps. Those officers add, that the Grand Visir, who is looked upon as one of the ablest and most intrepid warriors that ever defended the Eastern Empire, had received from one of his Agas the following compliment: "My Lord, the Russians are conquerors by means of their arms; but you obtain the victory by your prudence and your courage: they merit a branch of laurel, but you deserve a crown".

Messina, June 15. This year's harvest in Sicily promises the greatest abundance in corn, oil, silk, and wine; and the prohibition on the exportation of the two first articles is very soon expected to be taken off.

Petersburgh, June 22. The remainder of the ships which composed the squadron at Cronstadt, sailed the 18th of this month. The squadron at Revel hath also received orders to sail to join the former.

Madrid, June 29. His Majesty has just received advice from Cadiz, that the frigate of war L'Astrea, the man of war La Notre Dame du Rosaire, and the packet-boat Le St. Michel, are arrived there from Carthagena, Vera-Cruz, and the Havannah, with cargoes consisting of 2,093,403 golden crowns, in money and bars, 88,304 arrobes of sugar, and other productions of that country.

Turin, July 1. The King has ordered a new fort to be built at Tortona, in order to put that place in the best state of defence.

Warsaw, July 7. We are assured that the grand Russian army has passed the Danube, so that we are in hourly expectation of receiving important news.

Paris, July 12. Some private advices assure us, that a new revolution at a certain court is much dreaded, and that they are taking all possible measures to prevent its being carried into execution.

Hamburgh, July 16. Private letters from Berlin assure us, that an accommodation between the King of Prussia, and the city of Dantzick is on the point of being concluded.

Hague, July 20. The Prince of Orange left this place early this morning, and will proceed to Leewarden through North Holland; and, after taking his seat in the states of Friseland, his Highness intends to pay the same compliment to the province of Groninguen.

LONDON, July 16.

Some letters from Vienna mention the death of two of the Confederate Chiefs of Poland, who had been seized and imprisoned there.

July 17. They write from Stockholm, that the Emanuel, a Swedish transport, is loading with ship timber, and a present of naval stores, for the Dey of Algiers.

A person just arrived from Dublin informs us, that an enquiry is ordered to be made into the number of papists who at present serve as constables, and other petty officers in that city.

Extract of a letter from Cadiz, June 16.

"In consequence of orders arrived here from Madrid, a few days since, an advice boat was fitted out with the greatest expedition to carry packets from the Court to La Vera Cruz. It is judged by the hurry of the boat's sailing, that the above packets were of the greatest importance.

Extract of a letter from Vienna, July 5.

"We have just received advice of a party of Russian horse and foot, consisting of 6000 men, being surprized near Tergowioeh, in Wallachia, by a detachment of the Turkish army, under the Aga of the Spahis, and after an obstinate engagement, in which 4000 of the Russians fell, the rest were taken prisoners: amongst the slain were several young noblemen and gentlemen who served as volunteers in the army, and in the number of prisoners were several officers of distinction, especially the count Garloritze, who commanded the party. The loſs on the ſide of the Turks was very conſiderable, but cannot as yet, be aſcertained with any tolerable degree of certainty."

As the ſhip Endeavour (whoſe voyage round the world has been lately publiſhed) was croſſing the line, Captain Cook, Mr. Banks, Dr. Solander, &c. obſerved that luminous appearance of the ſea, which has been ſo often mentioned by navigators, and of which ſuch various cauſes have been aſſigned; ſome ſuppoſing it to be occaſioned by fiſh, which agitate the water by darting at their prey, ſome by the putrefaction of fiſh, and other marine animals; ſome by electricity, and others referring it into great variety of different cauſes, It appeared to emit flaſhes of light exactly reſembling thoſe of lightning, only not ſo conſiderable; but they were ſo frequent that ſometimes eight or ten were viſible almoſt at the ſame moment. They were of opinion that they proceeded from ſome luminous animal; and, upon throwing out the caſting net, this opinion was confirmed; it brought up a ſpecies of the Meduſa, which when on board had the appearance of metal violently heated, and emitted a white light. With theſe animals were taken ſome very ſmall crabs, of three different ſpecies, each of which gave as much light as a glow-worm, though the creature was not ſo large by nine-tenths. Upon examination of theſe animals Mr. Banks had the ſatisfaction to find, that they were all entirely new.

July 19. It is the general opinion of thoſe who ſpeak with the greateſt confidence at the weſt end of the town, that Lord Stormont's return to this kingdom is not on account of his own private affairs, but that he is charged with the explanation of ſome overtures of a very extraordinary nature made by the court of Verſailles.

Letters from a neighbouring kingdom aſſure us, that the miniſterial party daily loſe ground there, and that the public buſineſs cannot be carried on with the leaſt degree of eaſe or ſatisfaction to the Viceroy, unleſs the iniquitous, oppreſſive, corrupt ſyſtem of politics, eſtabliſhed by his p——r, be given up. What makes this ſtep the more indiſpenſibly neceſſary is, the total ſtagnation of the ſtaple manufacture of the country, the want of ſpecie, the inability to procure new loans, and the prodigious decreaſe and inſufficiency of the public taxes.

It is now generally underſtood, that Lord H———t has for ſome weeks paſt ſolicited his recal, but has not yet been able to obtain it.—The Iriſh affairs, a correſpondent remarks, will, in all probability, be as fatal to the power of ſome great men, as they were to government itſelf in the year 1641.

Extract of a letter from Bombay.

"We are at laſt in poſſeſſion of Broach, but we paid dear for the victory, in loſing General Wedderburne, whoſe bravery and conduct in the field could be equalled only by his abilities in the cabinet. He planned the attack, and his ſucceſſor adopted it after his death. The Nabob, who has been ſo troubleſome to us, is with a few miſerable adherents ſtraggling about the frontiers, afraid to appear: the reſt of his army are either deſtroyed or routed, as we ſtopped the impetuoſity and ardour of our brave fellows as ſoon as poſſible. We expected to have found upwards of a million ſterling, but the plunder does not amount to any thing like it. I expected to have had at leaſt 5000l. but a ſubaltern's ſhare is eſtimated only at 100l. Four hundred men are to remain in garriſon at Broach, and among the officers that are to ſtay I am included."

Extract of a letter from Madrid, June 12.

"The meaſures which are now taking, and the operations going forward in all the ports, beſpeak the intention of the Spaniſh Miniſtry to carry on the renewed war againſt the Moors with the utmoſt vigour. A fleet is fitting out, and nearly finiſhed, at Seville, which fleet is to favour the motions of the Spaniſh army now on the African coaſt, and afterwards is to attack the capital port of Sallee. Great numbers of the military are daily ſhipping off from Cadiz and Seville, to reinforce the Spaniards at Oran, who by the laſt advices from them have retaken Tetuan, and have formed an intention, when the reinforcements arrive, to attack the capital city of Mequinez."

The Admiral Spry, Hill, from South-Carolina, is arrived at Falmouth; the Union, Coombes, and the Truman, Shepherd, from ditto, off Dartmouth.

July 20. A miſunderſtanding of a very extraordinary nature, it is ſaid, has ariſen between the three powers who now occupy different parts of the kingdom of Poland. This unexpected change is chiefly attributed to the apparent influence the French Miniſtry have attained in the Imperial cabinet.

Junius has been diſcovered, and proves to be a perſon high in office under government, and whoſe ſole ſupport is on Adminiſtration; he has been threatened with immediate diſmiſſion: This is the true cauſe of that celebrated writer's ſilence.

Mr. Frazier, our chief engineer at Dunkirk, arrived in town laſt week with ſome important affairs concerning our fortifications at that place.

July 21. To ſuch a ſituation have Adminiſtration brought the kingdom of Ireland, by their oppreſſions in forming a board of exciſe, with the many places conſequent thereon, with the heavy weight of penſions fixed on that poor and diſtreſſed kingdom, that the Viceroy was obliged to apply to an eminent banker in Dublin for the loan of 28,000l. to pay arrears due to the military liſt, on Government ſecurity. The Banker's anſwer was, "My Lord, to ſuch a miſerable predicament have a late Adminiſtration brought the credit of the nation, that I would not take the Government ſecurity for half that ſum; but as you ſay there is no money in the Treaſury, I will advance you the ſum you aſk for on your own ſecurity:" which, from the exigencies of ſtate, he was obliged to comply with. Finding the national credit reduced ſo low, his Excellency, a few days after, waited on a nobleman of the firſt diſtinction in that kingdom in fortune, title, and intereſt, and begged he would uſe his endeavours, in conjunction with him, on the meeting of Parliament, to ſupport the credit of the nation. To which that Nobleman, in a truly ſpirited and patriotic manner replied, "My Lord, every thing has been carried on here for theſe few years paſt with ſo high a hand in defence of Adminiſtration, regardleſs of the intereſt, credit, or advantage of this kingdom, particularly in forming a new board of exciſe, with the ſeveral officers conſequently annexed to it, merely to promote Court influence, that I will not interfere in matters of this kind; a very little time will convince the Council of England that this kingdom cannot ſubſiſt long under the heavy weight it is now oppreſſed with by places, penſions, &c. and no trade to ſupport it: But, my Lord, let Adminiſtration ſhew they are in earneſt to relieve us, by ſtriking off theſe new officers of exciſe, and I ſhall do my utmoſt to promote the credit and honour of the kingdom."—In conſequence of this converſation, Colonel B—cq—re was diſpatched to England with the L—d L—t—nt's ſentiments to the Privy Council.

Several of the Noblemen and Gentry of landed property in Scotland and Ireland, are, we hear, come to a reſolution to let no more large farms, nor raiſe their lands in future, in order to prevent the petty farmers from emigrating to North-America.

It is now confidently reported in ſeveral parts of Germany, that the Empreſs Queen propoſes to imitate her illuſtrious and renowned predeceſſor, Charles the Fifth, and retire into a convent, in order to ſpend the remainde of her days in tranquility and retirement. Other motives, however, beſides thoſe of religion, are aſſigned for this very extraordinary reſolution.

They write from Madrid, that the members of the Spaniſh Miniſtry are ſtrongly inclined to declare war againſt England, but that the oppoſite party was as yet the moſt numerous; and that his Catholic Majeſty was much inclined to peace. This letter adds, that notwithſtanding this, troops and ammunition were frequently ſent off to the Weſt-Indies.

Letters from Genoa ſay, the diſpute between that Republic and Venice is happily terminated through the mediation of the Duke of Tuſcany.

The workmen belonging to the armory in the Tower are now buſily employed in fitting up military implements of all kinds for the ſervice of the Royal navy.

Freſh orders are ſent from the Ordnance Office to Woolwich, to expedite the compleating of the works going on in the Warren both for land and ſea ſervice.

The Gentlemen of Halifax, in Yorkſhire, are taking meaſures to extirpate the clippers and filers of gold coin from thence; ſeveral have been apprehended, and great numbers have decamped. Never was known ſo much confuſion as this late act occaſions at the above place. The farmers ſcruple to take a guinea if it wants more than 6d. of weight.

July 22. Yeſterday General Cornwallis, who lately arrived from his Government at Gibraltar, attended the Levee at St. James's, and laid before his Majeſty a ſtate of the fortreſs and garriſon.

Captain Suttie, of the Cranbrook, ſpoke with the Richmond, Capt. Paterſon, from Glaſgow to Virginia, in long. 58. 0, all well.

July 24. Yeſterday a Board of Admiralty was held; at the breaking up of which, expreſſes were ſent to the Commiſſioners of the ſeveral dock yards of Portſmouth, &c.

Letters by the Fox Eaſt-Indiaman bring an account, that the French have got at the Maurities a very conſiderable fleet of men of war ready to put to ſea; that they are building ſeveral ſtrong forts and batteries, the materials for which they carried with them from Europe. The letters alſo bring an account of the death of James Stewart, Eſq; of the iſland of Saint Helena.

Some diſpatches were received on Wedneſday from the Court of Madrid, ſaid to be particularly relative to the expected war between the Spaniards and the ſtates of Barbary; and immediately after they had been peruſed, ſummonſes were iſſued for a Privy Council to meet for the purpoſe of taking them under conſideration.

July 26. A correſpondent obſerves, that the people of Boſton were always contented, eaſy, and happy under the mild and fair adminiſtration of Governor Pownall, yet on his return home, he was not made a Baronet, nor had he a penſion, or any other ſingular mark of favour; but his ſucceſſors who, by inflammatory writings, and extraordinary conduct, have almoſt ſet every thing in flames in that country, have been loaded with honours, places, and penſions to themſelves, and to their families.

A private letter from Paris ſays, "two new arrets of the council of ſtate have juſt appeared here for ſuſpending the payment of the orders on the general receipt of the finances and other funds due to the public creditors, which occaſion no ſmall conſternation."

Saturday expreſſes were ſent by the Imperial, Ruſſian, and Pruſſian miniſters to their reſpective courts.

Extract of a letter from Hamburgh, dated July 16.

"All the political affairs in Europe ſeem to be at a ſtand within this three months. The hoſtile armies upon the Danube are almoſt upon the ſame ſpot they were when the congreſs broke up. A new victory is publiſhed almoſt every week at Peterſburgh, and the ſame is likewiſe declared at Conſtantinople, when perhaps nothing has paſſed betwixt the two armies. The preſent campaign does not look like carrying on a war, nor is it an armiſtice; Romanzow remains on this ſide of the Danube, and Muſun Oglu on the oppoſite ſide, in the mountains of Argentario. The affairs of Poland remain on the ſame footing; the pretenſions of the three allied powers have been conſented to by a majority of the diet, and a new national confederacy has been formed, which was to determine upon the whole matter, but ſince that ſtep no buſineſs has been done, and affairs run daily into greater confuſion. Three months ago a general war in Europe was the language of every country, whilſt we found the contrary, and the Emperor of Germany left his Court in the moſt critical time, and ſet out on a journey of pleaſure. The King of Pruſſia ſhews not the leaſt inclination for war, and all the ſhips of war in the ſouth of Europe are diſarmed, and nothing but harmony is ſaid to reign in the north; ſo that we ſeem to live in an age of peace, but we are afraid this tranquility will not continue long, as couriers between the courts of Verſailles and Stockholm are now more frequent than uſual. A certain Miniſter has declared by authority that his Royal maſter will publickly take the part of Poland, and oppoſe the diviſion of that empire. The Empreſs of Ruſſia, to juſtify her conduct, has publiſhed the whole debates of the late congreſs, according to which ſhe was forced to carry on the war, and inſiſts that all the chriſtian powers therefore ſhould aſſiſt her. The King of Pruſſia, in an imperceptible manner is daily ſending more troops into Poland, and the Imperial troops there are drawing ſtill nearer the Turkiſh territories. The Emperor himſelf is at the head of a powerful army in Tranſilvania; and the Empreſs of Ruſſia is ſending a ſtrong fleet into the Mediterranean. The report of an alliance between the Empreſs of Ruſſia and the court of Denmark, and of her taking the Daniſh fleet into her ſervice, gains ground every day; and ſhould any obſtacles be thrown in her way by Sweden, ſtirred up by the French, ſhe is ſtill able to oppoſe them, as a Ruſſian fleet of eleven ſhips has lately been diſcovered in the Baltic, near the Iſle of Bornholm, which will be ſufficient to anſwer that purpoſe; ſo that inſtead of a general peace, as we expected, we are afraid a general war is upon the point of breaking out."

NEWBERN, (North-Carolina) Aug. 13.

Lately returned to this port, Capt. Mitchell, in a ſloop from the Miſſiſippi river, who ſailed in April laſt with a number of paſſengers from this province, to ſettle on that river. The favourable accounts given by Capt. Mitchell of that deſirable country are very flattering, and cannot fail to allure great numbers to ſettle on the waters of the fineſt river in this weſtern world. He ſays he was up it about 200 miles, the banks are about ſix feet high, very level, and well ſettled with French, Spaniards and Dutch, who have fine farms, cultivated chiefly with Indian corn and indigo. That he ſaw neither ploughs, hoes, or any kinds of tools for huſbandry, but ſharp ſticks, with which they make holes in the ground, put in their grain, and give no other attendance until the crop is fit to gather, and that the amazing fertility of the ſoil exceeds imagination. The circumſtance of tending their crops with ſticks only, we imagine, will be joyful news to ſome of our ſand hill farmers, and cannot fail to allure them ſpeedily to a country they have all their lives been looking for.

BOSTON, September 13.

At the public Commencement at New-Haven the 8th of September inſtant, 36 young gentlemen educated at Yale College, and one at Dartmouth College received the degree of B. A. and 25 the degree of M. A.

September 16. On Thurſday ſe'nnight, as a great number of people were aſſiſting in raiſing the frame of a new meeting-houſe, in Wilton, New-Hampſhire, one of the large beams, accidentally gave way, when the greateſt part of the frame, with fifty three perſons that were upon it, fell to the ground, by which unhappy event, three men were inſtantly killed, and fifty wounded, two of whom have ſince died of their wounds, and four more are thought to be paſt recovery. This accident has put by the raiſing for the preſent.

NEW-YORK, September 23.

On Friday the 17th inſtant, at Morris Town, in Eaſt New-Jerſey, was executed, David Reynolds, a native of Ireland, about 32 years of age, for counterfeiting the money bills of credit of that colony. He arrived there about ten years ago, and chiefly followed the farming buſineſs, till getting acquainted with one Roſecrans (executed ſome time ago for the like crime, but without declaring his accomplices) he was by him led into the ſcheme of making and paſſing counterfeit money: After the execution of Roſecrans, Reynolds accidentally met with Capt. Richardſon (of Philadelphia, who is fled) and getting acquainted with each others characters, was by him introduced to Ford, Haynes, Cooper, Budd, King, and the reſt of the gang. Ford, the principal, termed by the reſt, the treaſurer of the three provinces, had counterfeited the money bills of New-York, New-Jerſey, and Pennſylvania, in ſo maſterly a manner as not to be diſtinguiſhed from the true bills without the niceſt inſpection, and alſo ſeveral of the gold and ſilver coins current in the Britiſh Colonies; and in paſſing theſe, Reynolds and the reſt of the accomplices continued, till Ford and King were apprehended and impriſoned in Morris County goal, from whence they ſoon after made their eſcape, as mentioned in the papers. One of the gang being convicted of aiding them in their eſcape and other high misdemeanors, to mitigate his punishment, made some confessions tending to the discovery of the rest, which alarmed another, who made an ample confession of the whole, in consequence of which, Reynolds, Haynes, Cooper, and Budd, were tried, confessed their guilt, and were condemned to be hanged. Their execution was ordered to be on the 17th instant; before the time, Budd, and Haynes were respited for a month, but Reynolds, and Cooper were ordered to prepare for execution at the time appointed. A few minutes before the time, Cooper confessed himself privy to the robbery of the Treasury at Amboy, and that he received three hundred pounds of the money; on which he also was respited till he should make further discoveries. Reynolds was therefore ordered for execution alone, at which he seemed much affected and burst into tears, but thro' the assistance of a minister who attended him, he grew calm, and resigned to his fate. His behaviour during his confinement and after his sentence, was penitent and submissive; he shewed a proper sensibility of his unhappy situation, and earnestly exhorted his companions in guilt, to a sincere repentance. On the fatal day, he took an affecting leave of them; and they all discovered the most lively expressions of that distress to which their crimes and follies had reduced them, which drew tears from the eyes of the spectators. At the place of execution, Reynolds sung and prayed very earnestly, and in a short but pathetic speech, warned the people to avoid the vices that had undone him, and earnestly requested them not to reflect on his innocent wife and helpless infants.

Cooper confessed that he was privy to the robbery of the Treasury at Amboy, and received 300l. of the money, that it was concerted by Ford and perpetrated by him and three soldiers then quartered there; that the plan was, first to attempt to carry of the iron chest, if that fail'd, next to take the key from Mr. Skinner's bed-room, and to kill him or any person who should discover them; and that if afterwards any of them should be suspected and convicted, they were to turn King's evidence and accuse Mr. Skinner as being the only accomplice with them. When some of them were shocked at this proposal as thereby an innocent person might lose his life; Ford replied, no, damn him, he will only be condemned, he has friends enough to save him from the gallows. That after breaking into the Treasurer's office adjoining to his bed room, they attempted to carry off the chest, but finding it difficult, set it down again, and breaking open a desk in the room, in hopes to find money, they therein found an old key to the money chest, which was rusty and thought unfit for use (the key then used being in Mr. Skinner's bed room) with this old key, they opened the iron chest, and th reby the lives that would have been exposed by their search for the other key, were probably preserved. The Governor and Council of New Jersey, are to meet in a few days, when further particulars relating to this matter will be known.

He was lately an apprentice to John Kelly; had on a white wilton fly coat much faded in the colour, broad ribbed black worsted stockings, a pair of oznabrigs trowsers, a blue duffil jacket, black barcelona handkerchief, double rimed pinchbeck buckles, black grained pumps, the tops bound, and much worn, one coarse home-made shirt, a buck hat lately turned, a pair of liberty buttons, has a scar on one of his legs and arms. Whoever takes up and secures said apprentice, so that his master may have him again, shall have the above reward, and reasonable charges, paid by

PHILIP BECKER

N. B. It is likely he will pass for a journeyman, as he is a good workman. All masters of vessels and others are forbid to harbour or carry him off at their peril.

WHEREAS I JOHN LEECH, of Blockley, in the county of Philadelphia, yeoman, intend for the future to follow such business and employments as will require my taking voyages over sea and journies to the back parts of America, and also to take up a tract of land on the Missisippi or Ohio: And as my wife Christine Leech cannot be persuaded to leave this province, I have therefore entered into an agreement with her, both to her satisfaction and my own; and as she is an honest, industrious and virtuous woman, and a very tender mother, I have bound my children to her, that she may bring them up in the best manner she can, and bind them out to such trades or occupations as she may think proper: And I have also given to her full power to bargain and sell, follow any lawful business, receive money, sue for and recover debts, and do any lawful action whatsoever in her own name and authority, and on her own account and credit, for herself, her use and benefit; as I hereafter never will desire any thing or things whatsoever either from her or her heirs: And this my said full power shall never by me be revoked, or made void, but shall be and remain in full force and virtue during my natural life.

September 17, 1773. JOHN LEECH.

N. B. I also hereby give notice, that I have settled affairs between myself and WILLIAM YOUNG, senior, and have sold and delivered unto him all my goods and chattels, in part of payment for my just debts, and for the remainder I have given to him my bond: And I hereby acknowledge freely that he, the said WILLIAM YOUNG, has always behaved to me as becomes an honest man. But there are always a certain sort of people who think to see splinters in their neighbours eyes, but do not take notice of the beam in their own eyes; and who have more need to be concerned about their own, and their nearest relations business, than to trouble themselves about that of other people. To such malicious spiteful persons, whose delight is to create mischief, it is true I have too often listened, which has been the cause of confusion, and misbehaviour on my part, in my family; nevertheless I am in hopes that the above named WILLIAM YOUNG will forgive me, and for the future continue my best friend in this world, nd I on my part will behave myself as may become an honest man.

Witness WILLIAM YOUNG, Jun. JOHN LEECH.
